Private Client

Affluent individuals and family businesses, both from Poland and abroad, form a substantial part of our client base. We make sure that our clients hold their enterprises closely in order to retain sufficient control to meet their long-term individual and professional goals.

We have significant experience in advising charities and philanthropy. We advise individuals and companies who want to establish a foundation in Poland and handle the whole range of charity matters, including the restructuring and merger of charities, issues of governance and dealing with charity compliance. We also have significant experience in wealth planning, inheritance, family law, immigration and property restitution issues.

We are leading law firm in Private Client by The Legal 500 and by Chambers HNW. Grzegorz Wóźniak and Grzegorz Dudek are recommended as some of the best private client lawyers in Poland.

Our services include:

- charities and philanthropy
- governance issues of charities
- setting up charity organizations in Poland
- compliance issues
- restitution of property
- private banking
- immigration
- inheritance law
- divorce and family law

Recent examples of our work:

- advising the family of a US national deceased in Poland on inheritance issues
- advising Delete Blood Cancer DKMS, the world's largest bone marrow donor center, on the governance issues and dealing with charity compliance
- advising Delete Blood Cancer DKMS on its international expansion and setting up a charity in Chile
- providing legal advice to Delete Blood Cancer DKMS in Poland on its tax and social security matters
- acting for a Japanese entrepreneur in a divorce case in Poland and subsequently representing him in relation to division of marital property
- advising the Polish branch of Rotary International on regulatory aspects

"They provide a personal and prompt service and their knowledge is impressive."

Vice President of Donor Recruitment of Delete Blood Cancer DKMS

"I could not have come across a more helpful and thorough team to trace my family's lost Warsaw townhouse."

Tamar Berman, individual client, Tel-Aviv

"The team at Woźniak Legal, headed up by Grzegorz Woźniak, have been extremely efficient, professional and competent."
The Legal 500, 2021

"Clients get the best of both worlds – the quality of an international law firm and the sound knowledge of the Polish market and clients."
The Legal 500, 2021
